Everlyne Kabaka Andayi

Family Members: Everlyne, Gevas Mwendwa (15), Brighton Mwatu (12), Ashley Iminza (9), Wayne Andayi (7), Stacey Wanjiku (3)

Their Story: Everlyne's husband died in 2008. At the time, she was sick with pneumonia and malaria but had to fend for the two children who depended solely on her. She decided to start selling chapatis by the roadside to earn her livelihood.

Vulnerable and hurt, she would go on to have three more children. Being the sole provider with an undependable income source, Everlyne's past decade has been turbulent. She has been evicted on numerous occasions. At such times, Everlyne has been forced to seek temporary shelter in her mother's small house.

Goals for the Future: Everlyne's dream is to one day own a hair salon and boutique business. This would give her some measure of stability and enable her to provide for her family.

Your support of $50/month for three years will provide financial training, health and hygiene education, parenting classes, and counseling. It will also cover instruction, support and mentoring to establish and run a small business to secure a bright future for this family.
